[TICKING]

RODNEY: Maggie? I've been outside shoveling snow, and I just don't feel well. Oh.

MAGGIE: Oh! What is wrong?

RODNEY: My chest is tight, and I tried sitting down outside. But the squeezing won't go away. I forgot I left my nitroglycerin tablets on the counter. Would you get them for me, please?

MAGGIE: Yes.

RODNEY: Oh.

MAGGIE: OK, here's the nitroglycerin. Hopefully, this helps.
