

1. Define Physical Security.

2. After reading chapter six describe in your own words the following;

- a. What's the prime concern of a physical security strategy?
- b. Are mitigation methods focused on detection of criminal acts?
- c. Briefly describe the intent why Physical Security methods are the major focus of Private Security.

3. What are the four barriers commonly used to protect perimeters?

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.

4. What's the difference between a magnetic-strip card and a proximity card? Both are examples of technology used to help with access/entry control.

5. Briefly describe layered security strategy.

Submit homework to submission folder

What to remember about this Chapter:

Understand the difference in philosophy between Public and Private security. The difference in tactics between the two and recognize why such a distinct contrast exists.

Be familiar with various barriers. The types, function and intended purpose of the barrier.

Knowledgeable about access control and the equipment available & capabilities used to accomplish the access control task.

Understand how security lighting helps security forces/personnel. It's not just a light bulb on a pole. Depending on the security task, lighting may be utilized in many different ways.

Use of force challenges with Private Security.

Understand crime prevention through environmental design.

Knowledgeable of the duties guards are asked to perform.