

Video Transcript:

CARL: I recognized Mr. Davis was going into anaphylactic shock when it was hard for him to catch his breath. I should have chose another medication in this situation.

KAREN: Yes Mr. Davis's condition was critical. Recognizing all the manifestations of anaphylaxis and the therapeutic action of emergency medications are vital for client safety.