chapter and contains chapter objectives, summaries, key terms and definitions, in-class activities, homework assignments, video resources, additional text resources, and test items (including multiple-choice, true/false, short-answer, and essay questions). The computerized test bank software, MyTest, is a powerful assessment generation program that helps instructors easily create and print quizzes and exams. Questions and tests are authored online, allowing ultimate flexibility and the ability to efficiently create and print assessments, any time anywhere. The Pearson MyTest includes a rich library of assessment items that can be edited to fit your needs. Access Pearson MyTest by going to www.pearsonmytest.com to log in, register, or request access.

Online PowerPoint Lecture Presentations, 0-13-265609-4: The lecture presentations highlight key concepts and summarize and expand content for each chapter in the text.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We would like to thank all the people who helped us in the process of producing the ninth edition of Applied Behavior Analysis for Teachers, including all the professionals at Pearson with whom we have worked. Thanks to Ann Davis, Christie Robb, Joanna Sabella, and Sheryl Langner. We appreciate the suggestions of those who have reviewed the text: Roger F. Bass, Carthage College; Paula E. Crowley, Illinois State University; Billie L. Friedland, Delaware State University; Jennifer Madigan, San Jose State University; Rebecca B. Peters, Aquinas College; Philip Swicegood, Sam Houston State University; Robert P. Trussell, University of Texas—El Paso; Mark Zablocki, University of Maryland; Shanna Davis, The Chicago School of Professional Psychology; John Northup, University of Iowa; and Stephen Johnson, Santa Clara University. Thanks to Rebecca Waugh who prepared the appendix.

We continue to appreciate the users of the text. We often hear from people who first read the book as undergraduates and who now assign it to students in their own university classes. We are honored to be partners in the development of those who teach.
