

A Girl

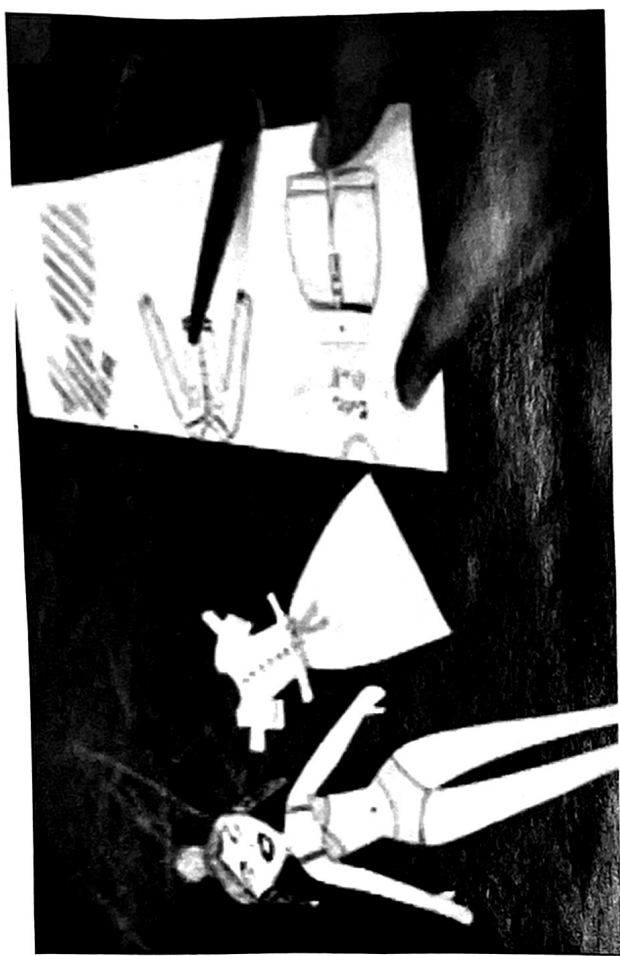

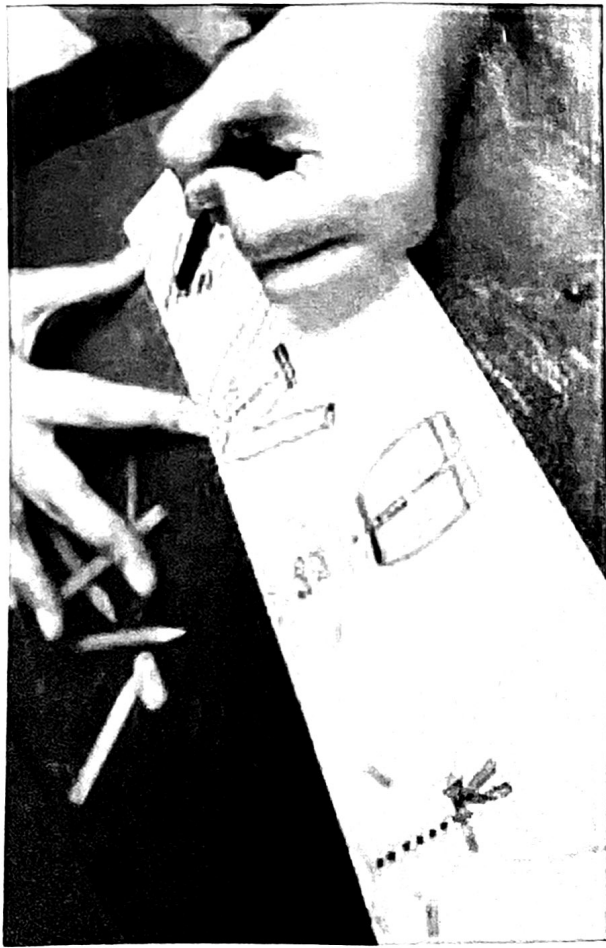

Who Loved

to Draw

When I was little, I loved to draw paper dolls.

*I spent hours in my room
designing clothes for my dolls.*

My mother always bought me papers and colored pencil. She loved to see my drawings.

*My friends also liked my paper dolls.
I made one for them and we played together.*

Today, girls don't play with paper dolls. In fact, it's not common anymore.

I remember that for Christmas, my mom gave me a beautiful doll as a gift. I was happy and played with her, but I never stopped playing with my paper dolls.

I have good memories good memories of my paper dolls.
