

A	B
Engineering	The European Union Renewable Energy Directive (2018) stipulates that EU countries should aim to produce 32% of their total energy from renewable sources by 2030. Assess the benefits and limitations of two common renewable energy sources and – in light of your findings – indicate how realistic the proposal is in the UK context.