

Activity Analysis of the Therapeutic Media

"Reflecting on the activity"

1. Name(s) of activity: -

Consider patient's occupational profile to indicate patient's participation in therapeutic craft activities that are meaningful and necessary for the client to carry out roles in home, work, and community environments and answer the following questions:

2. Identify the most important and meaningful actions of the activity in a sequential and orderly pattern

3. Identify all applicable performance areas of occupation

4. Identify applicable client factors and performance skills

5. Identify activity demands including ergonomic principles, grading criteria and requirements

6. Identify performance context

7. Thinking about current society, what role does this craft play in an individual's socio cultural, socio economic, and diversity factors and lifestyle choices in contemporary society?
