

- b. Asking questions about social or sexual life
  - c. Telling lies or spreading rumors about a person's personal sex life
  - d. Making sexual comments about a person's body
  - e. Turning work discussions to sexual topics
  - f. Looking a person up and down
  - g. Staring repeatedly at someone
  - h. Blocking a person's path or hindering them
  - i. Giving unwanted gifts of a sexual nature
  - j. Invading a person's body space
  - k. Making sexual gestures or kissing sounds or offering massages
  - l. Displaying sexual posters, cartoons, or handouts
9. American Airlines passed a grooming rule that prohibited "cornrow" hairstyles on all employees. Renee