

ebookbig.com

or scan the QR code to access the digital study portal.

Criminal Justice at Fayetteville State University. Dr. DeLone is currently serving as Interim Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. She is working on projects with Dr. Greg DeLone, Associate Professor of Public Administration at Fayetteville State University, that recognize the intersectionality of race, ethnic, gender, and class in order to offer effective crime prevention from a public health perspective. Dr. DeLone has published in the areas of race, ethnicity and sentencing, as well as, the political economy of crime. Her publications appear in the Journal of Quantitative Criminology, Social Problems, Justice Quarterly, Criminal Justice Review, and Journal of Ethnicity in Criminal Justice. She is an active member of the American Society of Criminology and past Editor of The Criminologist.

Brief Contents

ABOUT THE AUTHORS iii

PREFACE xviii

1 Race, Ethnicity, and Crime: American's Continuing Crisis 1

2 Victims and Offenders: Myths and Realities about Crime 43

3 Race, Ethnicity, Social Structure, and Crime 113

4 Justice on the Street? The Police and People of Color 149

5 The Courts: A Quest for Justice during the Pretrial Process 197

6 Justice on the Bench? Trial and Adjudication in Criminal Court 251

7 Race and Sentencing: In Search of Fairness and Justice 293

8 The Color of Death: Race and the Death Penalty 359

9 Corrections in America: A Portrait in Color 419

10 Minority Youth and Crime: Minority Youth in Court 461

11 The Color of Justice 511

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 521

INDEX 547

Contents

ABOUT THE AUTHORS v

PREFACE xvii

1 Race, Ethnicity, and Crime: American's Continuing Crisis 1

The National Race Crisis, 2014–2016 1

Race, Ethnicity, and Justice in America 3

Is Discrimination Just a Myth? 4

Objectives of the Book 6

The Colors of America: Racial and Ethnic Categories 8

The Official U.S. Census Categories 9

Race 10

Ethnicity 11

Problems with Traditional Racial and Ethnic Categories 13

Problems with Criminal Justice Data on Race and Ethnicity 20

Case Study: How Many People Are Shot and Killed by the Police? 20

Counting Race and Ethnicity in Criminal Justice Data 21

The Crime and Immigration Controversy 22

Sorting Out the Facts on Immigration 23

The Immigration and Crime Controversy 24

Problems with Immigration Enforcement 25

"Insecure Communities": The Impact of Immigration Enforcement on the Hispanic Community 26
The Geography of Racial and Ethnic Justice 27
Disparity versus Discrimination 28
Disparity 28
Discrimination 29
The Problem of Unconscious Bias 30
The Law of Discrimination 31
The Discrimination–Disparity Continuum 31
A Theoretical Perspective on Race, Ethnicity, and Crime 33
Alternative Theories 34
Conclusion 35
Discussion Questions 35
Notes 36

2 Victims and Offenders: Myths and Realities about Crime 43
Media and Crime 44
Racial Hoaxes 44
Race and Gender of Crime Victims 45
A Broader Picture of the Crime Victim 47
The National Crime Victimization Survey 49
Household Victimization 51
The Effect of Urbanization 52
Personal Victimization 53
The Effects of Urbanization 55
Prevalence of Crime Victimization 59
Lifetime Likelihood of Victimization 61
Homicide Victimization 62
Summary: A More Comprehensive Picture of the Crime Victim 64
Picture of the Typical Offender 64
Official Arrest Statistics 67
Problems with UCR Data 68
Arrest Data 70
Perceptions of Offenders by Victims 76
Problems with NCVS Offender Data 76
Perceptions of Offenders 76
Self-Report Surveys 79

Problems with Self-Report Surveys 79
Characteristics of Offenders 80
Theoretical Explanations for the Racial Gap in Offending 80
Community Influence on the Racial Gap in Offending Rates 81
Drug Offenders 83
Mass Shooting Offenders 84
Summary: A Picture of the Typical Criminal Offender 86
Crime as an Intraracial Event 87
National Crime Victimization Survey 87
Uniform Crime Report Homicide Reports 88
Summary 88
Crime as an Interracial (Hate) Event 88
Ethnic Youth Gangs 94
Gang Myths and New Realities 95
Varieties of Ethnic Street Gangs 99
African American 99
Native American 99
Asian American 100
Hispanic 101
White 101
Conclusion 102
Discussion Questions 103
Notes 104

3 Race, Ethnicity, Social Structure, and Crime 113

A Snapshot of Coming Home from Prison: Social Inequality and Criminal Justice 114
Inequality and Crime 115
It's Not Just the Criminal Justice System 115
Inequality in America: Long-Term Trends and the Recession 116
Two Societies? 116
Economic Inequality 117
Income 117
Wealth 118
The "Family Thing": Emergency Assistance and Inheritance 121
The Growing Gap between the Very Rich and the Rest of Americans 121
Unemployment 122

Poverty Status 124
Insurance Coverage 124
Social Capital and Cultural Capital 125
The Debate over the Underclass 127
Community Social Structure 128
Residential Segregation 128
"Distressed Communities": The Growing Gap in Community Well-Being 129
Crime and Neighborhood Deterioration 129
Well-Being 131
Theoretical Perspectives on Inequality and Crime 131
Social Strain Theory 132
Applying the Theory 133
Differential Association Theory 133
Applying the Theory 133
Social Disorganization Theory 134
Applying the Theory 135
Culture Conflict Theory 136
Applying the Theory 136
Conflict Theory 137
Applying the Theory 137
Routine Activity Theory 137
Applying the Theory 138
The Limits of Current Theories 138
Inequality and Social Reform 139
The Impact of the Civil Rights Movement 140
Conclusion 142
Discussion Questions 142
Notes 143

4 Justice on the Street? The Police and People of Color 149

Unequal Justice? The National Police Crisis 150
The Post-Ferguson Events 150
A Long History of Conflict 151
A Contextual Approach to Policing Communities of Color 151
The African-American Community 151

The Hispanic Community 152
The Native American Community 152
Asian, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islanders 153
The Arab-American Community 153
Public Attitudes about the Police 154
How Police Officer Conduct Shapes Attitudes 156
Police Use of Deadly Force 156
The Lack of National Data on Police Shootings 157
Patterns in Police Shootings 157
Controlling Police Use of Deadly Force 159
The Role of Unconscious Bias in Police Shootings 160
Does Skin Tone Matter? 160
"Police Brutality": Police Use of Physical Force 161
What Is "Police Brutality?" 161
The Prevalence of Force and Excessive Force 161
Race, Police–Community Relations, and Disrespect for the Police 162
Force in Traffic and Pedestrian Stops 163
The Control of Police Use of Force 164
De-Escalation: A New Approach to Reducing Police Use of Force 165
Discrimination in Arrests? 166
Arrests and the War on Drugs 167
Traffic Stops: Racial Profiling 169
Profiling Contexts 170
The Data on Traffic Enforcement 171
"A Deep Racial Chasm": The Experience of Traffic Stops 172
Legitimate and Illegitimate Use of Race and Ethnicity in Policing: The PERF Model Policy 173
Eliminating Bias in Traffic Enforcement 174
How Formal Policies Can Reduce Bias in Stops and Searches: The Case of the Customs Bureau 175
The Stop and Frisk Controversy 176
The Problem of Stereotyping and Routine Police Work 177
Verbal Disrespect and Abuse 177
Police Officer Attitudes versus Institutional Practices 178
Police Corruption and Communities of Color 178
Improving Police–Community Relations 179

Citizen Complaints against the Police 180
Citizen Oversight of the Police 182
Police Employment Practices 182
"Not Your Father's Police Department" 182
Trends in African-American and Hispanic Employment 183
Discrimination in Assignment 184
Does the Composition of a Police Department Make a Difference? 185
Do Officers of Color Perform Better? 185
Conclusion 186
Discussion Questions 187
Notes 188

5 The Courts: A Quest for Justice during the Pretrial Process 197
African Americans in Court: The Case of the Scottsboro Boys 198
The Situation Today 200
Decisions Regarding Counsel and Bail 202
Racial Minorities and the Right to Counsel 202
Racial Minorities and Bail Decision Making 212
Charging and Plea Bargaining Decisions 224
Prosecutors' Charging Decisions 224
Prosecutorial Discretion in the Context of Mandatory Minimum Sentences and Habitual Offender Laws 228
The Effect of Offender Race and Victim Race on Charging Decisions 229
Prosecution of Pregnant Women Who Abuse Drugs: Racial Discrimination? 234
Race and Plea Bargaining Decisions 236
Conclusion 239
Discussion Questions 239
Notes 241

6 Justice on the Bench? Trial and Adjudication in Criminal Court 251
Race/Ethnicity and the Criminal Trial 252
Trial and Adjudication in the Twenty-First Century 252