

Answer the following questions on Peter Singer's "Famine, Affluence, and Morality."

1. Is the argument deductive or inductive? Sound or unsound (if deductive)? Why? How strong or weak is it (if inductive)? Why is it strong or weak? [Arguments from analogy and the standards for assessing them are found in UA 9th ed. pp. 204 - 208; UA 8th ed. On p.267-271. In UA7, you can find these on p.263 and the following. You can also view the recording of our online lecture in this week's module for standards of assessment.]
2. Do you agree with Singer's argument? Why or why not? (You might have some members who agree and some who disagree. Make sure you explain the reasons for the agreement and disagreement.)

Answer the following questions on Tommie Shelby's "Is Racism in the 'Heart'?"

1. What is Tommie Shelby's critique of Gracia's definition? Explain your answer. What is one example from contemporary society which Shelby would classify as racist? Explain why you think he would do so.
2. Do you agree with Shelby's critique? Why or why not?
