Current Event Discussion #1 ↗

Find a recent (within the last three months) article related to a crisis in higher education (this can be any crisis in higher education, not just those discussed in class). Your article does not have to be related to the module of the week. Post a link to your article, as well as summarize the article. In addition, you will detail your reaction to the article - why did you choose it? What do you think? Would you have done anything differently? (At least 500 words for your primary post.) Respond to at least two classmates' posts (at least 100 words each).
