

Discussion

- Why would a pedigree be useful to a doctor or genetic counselor?
- What can be determined from looking at our example pedigree? If you were a doctor or genetic counselor, what would you discuss with our example family?
- Should all doctors be required to ask their patients about their family health history? Why or why not?