

Assignment Submissions & Examinations (General Information)

- ❖ Chapter Review Assignments must be saved in general file format with a complete heading to include Student name and Chapter(s). Record the answers to the assigned questions found on the Assignment Listing. Submit the document through the appropriate Assignment area by the deadline given.

- ❖ Drug Information Sheet Assignments:

The goal of these assignments is to become familiar with using a drug source—(a handbook or appropriate internet site) to gather reliable information about drugs, and to demonstrate the ability to extract, interpret, and summarize the drug information. Use different sources to gain experience and do not cut and paste.

1. Select one drug from the drug classifications discussed in the assigned readings.

2. Each assignment is to do 2 individual drug sheets. — (not 2 per Chapter).

3. Use a recommended drug reference handbook or authoritative website.

This is an important part of the assignment-- check out the website, does it look legitimate?

Is it endorsed by a Medical Association? Hospital?

Is its purpose informational or is it marketing? (you will start to see the differences)

4. Create a Drug Information Sheet in (plain text or Word), on the selected drug.

Include:

- Student name (required)
- Chapter (where drug is mentioned in school book) (required)
- Source used-(full website URL or name of Drug App) (required)
- Generic name of the drug (required)
- Trade name of the drug (required)
- Classification (usually Chapter Title/ sub-section) (required)
- Adverse reactions (Serious/Toxic effects) (required)
- Indications (uses) (required)
- Contraindications (optional)
- Interactions (optional)
- Side effects (optional)

- The drug information sheets should be complete and thorough, address all required headings, and be abstracted by the student. Do NOT cut and paste ENTIRE sections of the Drug listing. Read and extract the information you need.

5. Submit the document through the appropriate Assignment Area by the deadline given.
