

Criteria	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1	Criterion Score
Thinking/ Inquiry	30 points The presentation is centered around a research question which shows a highly developed awareness of contextual issues. Interpretation of the findings from research articles are insightful and information from varied sources is synthesized Conclusions and recommendations demonstrate critical thinking, with clear links the research question	26 points The research question does not demonstrate a highly developed awareness of contextual issues. Interpretation of the findings from research articles are provided, information from varied sources requires more synthesis Conclusions and recommendations did not clearly relate to the research question	23 points The research question is too narrow or too broad More synthesis required from research findings Conclusions and recommendations lack critical thinking, with no clear links to the research question	/ 30
Use of Visual Aids	20 points The presentation includes appropriate and easily understood graphics which the presenter refers to and explains at appropriate moments in the presentation. Slides are not overly burdened with text, images are used in place of text where possible	17.9 points The presentation includes graphics which the presenter refers to and explains at appropriate moments in the presentation. Slides are overly burdened with text, images are not incorporated	15.9 points Slides are overly burdened with text, images are not used	/ 20