

Match the term to the answer.

- ▼ Population size
- ▼ Population density
- ▼ Quadrat
- ▼ Mark and recapture
- ▼ Demography
- ▼ Mortality rate
- ▼ Fecundity
- ▼ Interspecific competition
- ▼ Age structure
- ▼ Intraspecific competition

- A. Members of the same population of organisms contending for resources
- B. Used to determine population size of mobile organisms
- C. The statistical study of population changes over time
- D. The probability of individuals dying before their next birthday
- E. A sampling method used to determine population size and density of slow moving or stationary organisms
- F. The potential reproductive capacity of an individual within a population
- G. A description of how an organism maintains and reproduces itself from its birth until its death
- H. The number of individuals within a specific area
- I. Species contending for resources in a shared habitat
- J. The proportion of individuals of a population at specific age ranges
- K. The total number of individuals of a species worldwide