Choose ONE of the following questions and answer as completely as possible in roughly three to five pages, typed, double spaced, one inch margins. Make sure to use specific evidence from the stories to make your assertions convincing.

8 2-3
EITHER

1. Compare the figures of evil in "Young Goodman Brown," "Where Are You Going, Where Have You Been," and "A Good Man Is Hard to Find" in order to make a single, clear point about 1) the nature of evil or 2) about the victims of evil.

OR

2. "What We Talk About When We Talk About Love"
"The Company of Wolves"
"How to Talk to a Hunter"
"How to Date a Browngirl, Blackgirl, Whitegirl or Halfie"
"Good Country People"

All these stories talk about love, or something close to it. Compare or contrast any three of these stories in order to make a clear, interesting point about love.
