

Table of Contents > Module 4: Contemporary American Voices > Discussion: Maxine Hong Kingston's "Restaurant"

Discussion: Maxine Hong Kingston's "Restaurant" ▾

Describe the speaker you imagine in Maxine Hong Kingston's poem, "Restaurant." What do the errors in grammar reveal about the speaker?

What is the setting (time and place) you imagine? What specific details from the poem lead you to this impression?

Who is the "you" the speaker refers to? What specific details from the poem lead you to this impression?

What is the dominant mood the poem? What specific details in the poem lead you to this impression?

What is the theme of the poem? Does the closing line of the poem influence the theme? If so, how so?

Rubrics

 GE Discussion Grading Rubric - Timeliness v2