For this assignment you will type an essay of 750-1000 words (2-3 pages, double spaced with 1" margins and no larger than 12 point font) on ONE of the following topics.

Important: I am requiring that you do NO research. The essay is supposed to be about you, your life, your experiences, your opinions and ideas. If you do not include personal details, examples, stories, etc. to support your views, I will suspect plagiarism. If I can rule out plagiarism, I will still consider the essay off-topic and lower the grade accordingly.

1. Discuss 2-4 different groups of teachers YOU have encountered based on one principle of classification.

2. Discuss 2-4 different groups of people YOU have encountered at the movie theater based on one principle of classification.

4. Discuss 2-4 different types of gifts YOU have received based on one principle of classification.

5. Discuss 2-4 different groups of restaurant servers YOU have encountered based on ONE principle of classification.

6. Discuss 2-4 different groups of neighbors YOU have encountered based on ONE principle of classification. (Please DON'T use race, nationality, ethnicity, religion, etc.)

For all of the above topics, please, keep the subject matter "personal." I do NOT want essays about politics, social issues, or historical events. I, also, do NOT want to read something "technical".

You will turn in all rough drafts, outlines, and brainstorming with your final copy.

Note that late papers, papers missing rough drafts, and papers that fail to meet length requirements will be penalized.

Please be aware of my policy about late papers.

Remember, if you fail to turn in this paper, you will receive a lowered or failing grade in the course.
