

Typical Case Study Report

- Title
Gives instant access to the main point.
- Abstract/ Summary
Gives an undetailed overview of the whole document and main conclusion(s)
(100-150 words)
- Introduction & Literature Review
clearly state the purpose of the study.
To review the literature in your field of work/ good understanding of the history and current state of your topic.
- Results & Discussion/Conclusion & Recommendations
To present your results and discuss them. To show the relationships among the observed facts that you have presented in your document, and to draw conclusions.
To interpret the results or observations. (what is important and significant. why the results or observations are valid) .
- References