

Essay Outline for Gender Violence

- A. Abstract
- B. Introduction
- C. Objectives of the Study
- D. Statement of the Problem

Discrimination and violence due to things that a person cannot control is a big hit for the victims. Things such as gender, race and ethnicity should not be used as a tool for oppression of other people due to the fact that they are in those situations and cannot control them. Actually, gender should be used to enhance peace and educate and empower people to help them understand on their roles in the society. Women in this context are the major victims.

Excellent ideas - some suggestions:

- choose one particular situation to concentrate on -
- try not to take on such big areas all together, such as legal, labor, globalization

- good intro topic
- E. A clear explanation of gender violence
- F. Overview of regions affected by gender violence
- good concentration in Maquiladoras
- G. Case study to help understand what gender violence is: Accountability for murder
 - a) Poor working conditions for women.
 - b) Miserly wages in return for exposure to toxicity.
 - c) The basic safety for the workers
 - d) Legal matters: contribution of the labour unions towards gender violence
 - e) Women's rights as part of human rights
 - f) Why do victims still stay even after violation?
 - g) Empowerments and Globalization
 - i. Movement of Justice by women workers
 - ii. Nemesis of activist workers
 - H. The importance of learning about gender violence
 - I. Conclusion
 - J. References
- thoughts for the discussion, perhaps, and the conclusion