

The impermissible, and obligatory is adequately and accurately explained.

10 /20 *What's impermissible is buying yourself luxuries.

The Trolley Problem and its role in the paper is adequately described and a realistic example is given.

20/50 *The trolley problem needs much more detail.

Singer's consequentialist philosophy is adequately explained.

10/30 *A utilitarian judges the rightness or wrongness of an action by the difference it makes in the world.

Two sets of objections and responses are identified and explained.

0 /40 *The prompt asks you to identify two objections to his argument Singer acknowledges and responds to.

A plausible claim is made about the supererogatory.

10/20 *This example isn't obviously related to the essay's topic.

The student has a defensible and elaborated response to Singer's argument.

0/20

Proper spelling, grammar, typesetting, editing, and paragraph structure.

20/20

Total

70 /200