

How does the instructor check to see if students actually finished the assigned reading?

What type of readings are being assigned?

How does the instructor help students learn new vocabulary words in the class?

Can the readings be used in the test/essays?

~~What~~ What is the purpose of reading assignments in the class?

What instructions are given for assigned readings?

How many pages are students supposed to read each week?

Will the instructor have discussions from the readings?

The History of the United States