

and she fought him at different times in the past She doubted whether show would get true help from this man.

leave where?

When she remembered her childhood experiences in the hands of the same medicine man, she decided to leave without reason. She already knew that at the end of the day that the people near her were not doing anything to help her. From her worried state, she decides to vanish into the darkness to go get her son back from the community spirits. According to her culture, the gods knew that Dennis was going to take the bananas that were forced to ripen using carbide and he would eventually develop stomach issues. It is therefore clear that they would take and keep him safe. However his mother was so worried that she didn't believe that she would finally be able to overcome the situation. Her husband who is driver at a local agency of tourists was keen to arrive home before 9pm and sit on the couch waiting for anyone to come and light up his world. It was becoming hard to accept that the son could not be seen anywhere and the medicine men were unable to unravel what was happening. The search continued for 3 days.

Many stories went across area with everyone trying to explain what would have happened to the young one. His father remained calm and as he left for job that morning he said that he believe that the gods were in the process of bringing back the child. Diana was already used to such promises and felt tired about what the entire issue. She decided to leave for home and told her friends that she would return tomorrow to continue with the search. When she arrived home she noticed that every sign showed that her husband was home. She called out his name but no one answered. She found all clothes that he wore that morning on the bed. The gods were also I the house because she felt unusual power holding her. When she got to the bedroom where Dennis used to sleep he was there fast asleep, he looked tired. She woke him up and he mentioned that he was okay and that he left his father on that other side of the river working with other men. There was no river nearby and this simply meant that the father had also been taken

Again,
Show
us the moments
in let us
Diana's
view!