

Microeconomics Essay 2 "I, Pencil"

1) Review the appropriate notes, class material, videos and sections of the textbook.

2) Click on the website listed below. Read the introductory material, the article "I Pencil" by Leonard Read, and the Introduction by Milton Friedman.

<https://fee.org/resources/i-pencil-audio-pdf-and-html/>

or

<http://www.econlib.org/library/Essays/rdPncl1.html>

3) Submit a well-written essay on how the material from class helped you to interpret, understand, analyze, and/or provide a proper perspective on "I Pencil". How does article relate to class?

4) This assignment is worth 100 points.

Expectations for grading:

Reflect on this material and review past notes and material from class.

1. Provide a well-written standard 5 paragraph essay. Please note: If the essay that you submit could have been written three months ago, I will not be interested in it. Liberally salt and pepper your essay with economic nomenclature, theories, definitions, and tenets. This is going to be a competitive essay, so put some time into it.
2. College level writing is expected throughout.
3. No late assignments will be accepted! The due date is December 14, 2017 at 5:59 PM.

Oh, did I remember to tell you that the expectation is college level writing?

DO NOT SEND ASSIGNMENTS THRU THE EMAIL SYSTEM