

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

ISSC479
18-May-2024
Zenith City Water
clanc

This report was prepared as an account of work sponsored by an agency of the U.S. Government. Neither the U.S. Government nor any agency thereof, nor any employee, makes any warranty, expressed or implied, or assumes any legal liability or responsibility for any third-party's use, or the results of such use, or any information, apparatus, product, or process disclosed in this publication, or represents that its use by such third party would not infringe privately owned rights.

Summary Percent Compliance

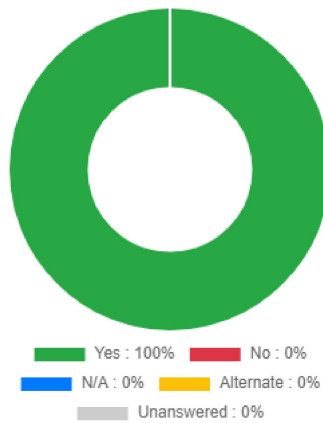

Executive Summary

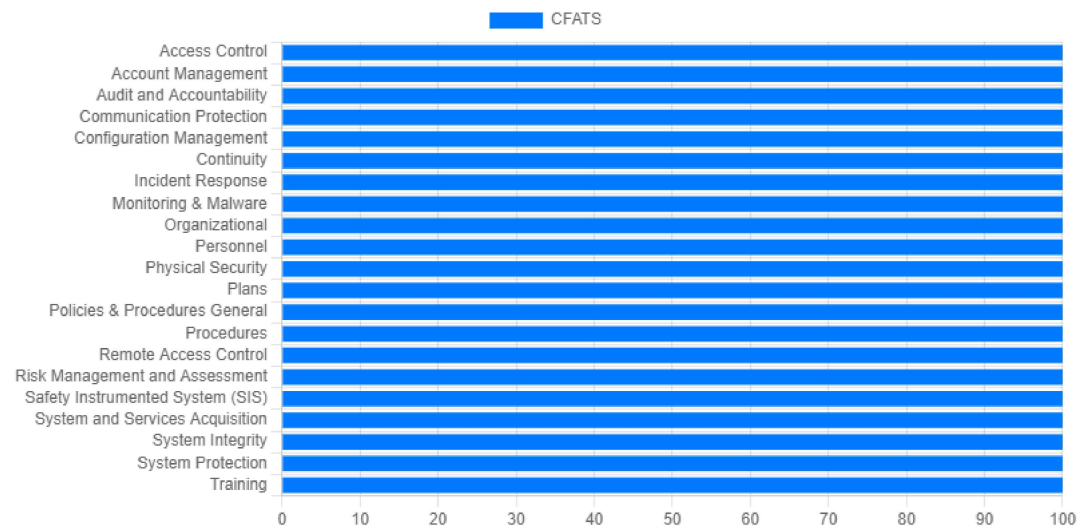

Cyber terrorism is a real and growing threat. Standards and guides have been developed, vetted, and widely accepted to assist with protection from cyber attacks. The Cyber Security Evaluation Tool (CSET) includes a selectable array of these standards for a tailored assessment of cyber vulnerabilities. Once the standards were selected and the resulting question sets answered, the CSET created a compliance summary, compiled variance statistics, ranked top areas of concern, and generated security recommendations.

Evaluation Against Selected Standards and Question Sets

Standards Summary

Standard or Question Set

Security Assurance Level (SAL)

CALCULATED LEVEL
Low

	Confidentiality	Integrity	Availability
Overall Values	Low	Low	Low

Areas of Concern Top Subjects and Questions

The top subject areas and questions identify those areas where attention will either provide the most immediate impact or protect against the greatest vulnerabilities.

Top Categories of Concern

- 1 Access Control
- 2 Account Management
- 3 Audit and Accountability
- 4 Communication Protection
- 5 Configuration Management

Top Questions of Concern