

Evaluation

Here is where you assess the credibility and reliability of the source. Talk about the author's biases, research, documentation, and whether or not you agree with the findings.

Reflection

Talk about how useful this source was to you. What did it teach you? How did it change or affirm your opinion about the subject? Where and how do you think you would use this source in your final research paper?