

Literature Review Scoring Rubric

Points	Writing Style	Citations/APA Formatting	Content	Mastery of Concept Topic/Application	Literature Review Form Submitted
2 Proficient	Writing submission is well-written and organized. Any errors in grammar and/or spelling are either minimal or non-existent.	Citations are scholarly and peer reviewed. The number of citations is appropriate for the assignment objectives. Appropriate APA format is followed.	The substantive content effectively summarizes literature that is subject-relevant, addresses all parts of the assignment directions, and unifies the material under themes connected to the specified hypothesis.	The writing submission demonstrate exemplary synthesis between literature evaluation (via the submitted form) and the actual literature review submitted.	The literature review form was submitted and fully filled out.
1 Adequate, but with some significant areas of attention	Writing submission is acceptable, but with some notable spelling and/or grammatical errors. In spite of the errors, the submission still makes sense. The submission has some issues with organization, but reader is still capable of following what the author is saying.	Citations include some peer reviewed, scholarly citations, but majority of citations are from non-scholarly sources. Some issues with APA formatting, but most of the citations are in the correct format.	The substantive content mostly summarizes literature that is subject-relevant, but there are notable deviations. Unifying themes throughout the literature are not discussed or are poorly communicated. Most of the assignment directions are addressed.	The writing submission demonstrates reasonable synthesis between literature evaluation (via the submitted form) and the actual literature review submitted.	The literature review form was submitted, but only partially filled out.
0 Fails to meet an acceptable standard for the assignment objectives	Writing submission has significant spelling and/or grammatical errors, is disorganized and overall poorly written.	The majority of citations are not scholarly and/or peer reviewed. Relies on too few citations to illustrate a grasp of the relevant material. There are significant issues with APA formatting.	The writing submission fails to address the assignment directions in any logical way.	The writing submission demonstrates no synthesis between literature evaluation (via the submitted form) and the actual literature review submitted.	The literature review form was not submitted. NOTE: THIS FORM MUST BE SUBMITTED IN ORDER FOR THE ASSIGNMENT TO BE SCORED.
