Diving into a Bump

The 8 Steps

Now apply all of the ideas and skills that you have learned by analyzing one of your own culture bumps.

Remember culture can apply to national cultures or different ages, different ethnicities, different professions, different genders and much more. Also as you recall from the culture bump trivia game, there are four categories of culture bumps:

1. Things
2. Behaviors
3. Things we say
4. Communication styles

In fact, a culture bump occurs anytime something catches our attention—something that we do not expect—something that we would do differently.

If you walk through these steps with each of your culture bumps, you will always find common ground and much, much more.
