

NINETEEN:

PITCH away piety and 'know-how',
and your followers will be far, far more contented.

PITCH away heavy morals and forced decency
and your followers attempt the correct path.

THROW away commerce and revenue: and a good number of pickpockets will begin to fade away.

SHOULD this triplet be insufficient,
simply choose the heart-center of the sphere,
and allow all things to welcome their natural coordinates.

ALLOW all duties to organize.
Allow all to take their natural routes
