

Study and Critical Thinking Questions

1. What are the three alternative routes to follow in making ethical decisions, according to Fletcher?
2. What do you think Henry Miller meant in saying that legalism demonstrates "the immorality of morality"?
3. As you read the section on legalism – make note of
 - a) what legalism is
 - b) Fletcher's critiques of legalism
4. As you read the section on antinomianism – make note of
 - a) what antinomianism is
 - b) Fletcher's critiques of antinomianism.
5. From the section on situationism:
 - a) The situationist enters every decision-making situation with what considerations?
 - b) For the Christian situationist, what is the one binding and unexceptionable law?
 - c) According to Fletcher, "only _____ and _____ count when the chips are down!"
 - d) How does Fletcher describe the three steps of a situationist's strategy or method?
 - e) What does Fletcher say about the three different ethical approaches and their relationship to wisdom (sophia) or reason?