

I. Proper ORDER As Popular Management

A. A Necessary
Framework of Material
And Moral Security

1. Preconditions - Not Outcomes - The Importance of Self-Help And Self-
Regulation (example: Food Supply)
2. Target - Material And Moral Flourishing
3. The Importance of
The Family for Order

Monuments To Magistrates B. The Role of The District (County) Magistrate

1. 1360 (Number of Counties) - Demographic Challenge
2. Selected By Competitive Examinations
3. Median - 23-40 years Old; Married
4. Subject To Bureaucratic And Popular Control
 - a. Law of Avoidance
 - b. Positive or Negative Bureaucratic Interaction (Promotion)
 - c. Oversight (Censorate)
 - d. Popular Opinion (From Rites to Monuments)

C. Material Management

1 Co-participation - Large Scale Functions Are Countywide And The Responsibility of Government; Small-Scale, Local Functions Produced By Local Institutions and Leaders
(Elders, Notables)

a. Confucian, Functional Federalism (Confucian Constitution)

2. Functions

- a. Order (Physical/Security)
- b. Jurisdiction (Law)
- c. Standards (Markets, Weights and Measures, Commerce, etc)

3. (Functions) - Infrastructure
a. Transportation And Communication b. Water Control
(Irrigation, Flood Control)
(c. Infrastructure - Markets, Land Reclamation; Subsistence)

4. The Subsistence

Infrastructure -
The Ever-Normal Granary
System

a. County-Wide Granaries
Owned By + State Provide
Insurance Against Food Shortages (Goal - Price Stability For Farmers,
Buy Cheap, Sell Dear, Famine Veto
b. But Most Storage IS Private And Local > 50% /

- D. Moral Management
1. The Magistrate's Role
 - a. Exemplary Role
[Monuments, Life
Style of Officials]
 - b. Exhortation -
Moral Encouragement
 - c. Public School Subsidies
 - d. Ritual Promotion
- E. Lasting Legacies
1. Centralized, Bureaucratic
Rule Based On Territory (Countries)
 2. Incompetent, Merit
Based Rule
 3. Politics As Popular Management

There will be no class on Friday Owing to Weather
Class will Resume Monday

Also I will begin writing letters of Rec. on Oct 31.

Thank You