

Cover Page and Outline Cover page is professional and contains all required information. The 1-page outline is well organized and summarizes the main points of the Disease Report.	5 to >3.0 pts High Performance	3 to >2.0 pts Intermediate Performance	2 to >1.0 pts Low Performance	1 to >0 pts Unacceptable	5 pts
Preparation and Assignment Details Student clearly conducted thorough research and developed a well organized and well written report. Meets all requirements for format, length, content, and references.	10 to >7.0 pts High Performance	7 to >4.0 pts Intermediate Performance	4 to >1.0 pts Low Performance	1 to >0 pts Unacceptable	10 pts
Written Report Report is broad in scope and includes up to date information on disease. Writing is clear and free of grammar, punctuation, and spelling errors.	15 to >10.0 pts High Performance	10 to >6.0 pts Intermediate Performance	6 to >2.0 pts Low Performance	2 to >0 pts Unacceptable	15 pts
Presentation Presentation is 15- to 20-minutes in length. Student includes appropriate visual aid such as a PowerPoint presentation or informational handout. Information is clearly presented in the student's own words rather than read directly from the written report/visual aid. Student is prepared to answer questions. Student maintains professional demeanor throughout presentation and Q&A.	10 to >7.0 pts High Performance	7 to >4.0 pts Intermediate Performance	4 to >1.0 pts Low Performance	1 to >0 pts Unacceptable	10 pts
References Report and presentation are well supported by at least 5 peer-reviewed and/or scholarly sources, excluding the course textbooks. All sources are listed in an APA-formatted reference page at the end of the written report.	10 to >7.0 pts High Performance	7 to >4.0 pts Intermediate Performance	4 to >1.0 pts Low Performance	1 to >0 pts Unacceptable	10 pts

Total:50