

Expository Essay Prompts

- Write an essay explaining why some people never end up in relationships.
- Write an essay explaining the characteristics of a good friend.
- Write an essay explaining how love can be dangerous.
- Write an essay explaining why some parents are so strict.
- Write an essay explaining the major stressors in teenagers' lives.
- Write an essay explaining why some teenagers skip school.
- Write an essay explaining the likely consequences of taking or selling drugs.
- Write an essay explaining why someone may commit suicide.
- Write an essay explaining why some cities have curfews for teenagers.
- Write an essay explaining how moving from place to place affects teenagers.
- Write an essay explaining why some teens join gangs.
- Write an essay explaining the main reasons why students drop out of school.
- Write an essay explaining why it is important to learn to read.
- Write an essay explaining how social media can be beneficial or dangerous
- Write an essay explaining why children need cell phones in school.

Persuasive Essay Prompts

- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether marijuana should be legal in all states.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether the driving age should be increased to twenty-one.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether all high school students should wear uniforms.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether elementary school students should be permitted to carry cell phones in school.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether high school lunch should be held off campus.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether the STAAR test should determine whether a person graduates.
- Write an essay stating whether or not the military draft should be reinstated.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether college should be free for everyone.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether social media helps or hurt a person's life.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether reality television promotes dangerous stereotypes.
- Write an essay stating your opinion on whether parents should let their children play dangerous sports (football, basketball, soccer, hockey, etc.).
- Write an essay stating your position on whether American TV is too white.
- Write an essay arguing your position on whether technology in the classroom ever gets in the way of learning.
- Write an essay explaining your position on whether what you say on social media should be grounds for getting fired.
- Write an essay arguing your position on whether the legal drinking age should be lowered.