

Writing Prompt 2: You are required to write a 100-word essay that responds to the following:

You are a juvenile justice expert. Write a report on whether or not you think the justice system needs to reform how girls are treated, particularly once they are in a juvenile detention center. If you do think reform is needed, explain what efforts should be made to bring about a change. If you do not think a change is needed, support your reasoning. (Include 3 theories in your discussion). (100 points)

All writing assignments are required to be typed Times Roman, 12-point font, double spaced and properly cite sources that you used in APA format.

1. You must provide a reference sheet for sources used.
