

Franklin serves on a hiring committee and fails to let anyone know that his brother-in-law is a candidate.

Franklin has a clear conflict of interest.

There is no conflict of interest.

There would only be a conflict of interest if the company finds out about it.