

1. Who are the key constituents participating in municipal governments? What challenges do they create for NYC?
2. What are the key financial/performance indicators you would consider in viewing the performance of the City of NY for Moody's municipal bond ratings?
3. How has the City performed on these dimensions?
4. What concerns, if any, do you have about its recent performance?
5. Given your analysis in question 1, what is your assessment of the reasonableness of the assumptions underlying the city's projections made in its 4-year plan?
