

How do the various participants in the budget process see the system working? Are their perceptions coherent?

What are the strong and weak aspects of the state's budget formulation and monitoring processes? Is the Office of Fiscal Affairs helping or hindering the state's reorganizations efforts?

How, when, and by whom should the priorities be set for the FY2011 budget?

What changes, if any, would you recommend Mr. Davidson make to the budget system at North Lincoln?