

Research Paper:

Students will choose one issue in bioethics or business ethics covered in one of the chapters of the textbook and write a 7-10 pages long research paper. The research will consist of presenting and critically assessing the issues in the chosen topic and evaluating, at least, two practical examples/case studies.

Topic: Examining the ethical issues of gun control (Chapter 14)

Look at certain specific controversial cases such as, for example, Sandy Hook school Shooting (see Scott Rae's textbook, p 408), Aurora, Colorado, Movie Theater Shooting (see Scott Rae's textbook, pp. 411), Pulse Nightclub Mass Shooting (see Scott Rae's textbook, p 421) and others.
