

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Preparation of weekly assignments as set in prior class and posted on TWEN.
- Weekly attendance and class participation.
- Reading of the news and injecting it into weekly discussions.
- * Group presentation of a written outline of your group research paper (instead of a midterm exam)*
- * A final research paper (instead of a final exam).*

FINAL GRADE

- * Online class presence and participation-----15%*
- * Outline including preliminary bibliography -----35%*
- * Final paper -----50%*

TWEN

All assigned and suggested reading including PPT are available in TWEN.
Register Saturday in Law and Religion course.

OUTLINE INCLUDING PRELIMINARY BIBLIOGRAPHY AND FINAL RESEARCH (TERM PAPER)

Outline and preliminary bibliography and the Final paper can be worked by one student or a group of two or no more than three students.

Suggested themes for this semester:

Please see initial and suggested bibliographies in TWEN

SPECIAL NOTES:

A. Auxiliary services or special needs

All students who require auxiliary services or special assistance must apply through the Coordinator of Services to Students with Disabilities at the beginning of the course or as soon as they acquire knowledge of the need. To contact the Coordinator: (787) 751-1912 Ext. 2032 or lborri@juris.inter.edu with Mr. Luis Borri.