

In search of a “good” death

- Guidelines for a good death:

1. Minimize physical distress to be free of possible debilitating pain.
2. Maximize psychological security, and reduce fear and anxiety, thus feeling in control of death.
3. Enhance relationships and be close as possible to loved ones.
4. Foster spirituality and have a sense of integrity and purpose in life.