

PY 555 Systemic Epistemology Term Paper (Final Exam)

Purpose

The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate a working knowledge of the concept of Systemic Epistemology.

Objectives

1. Better understand the systematic approach to the acquisition of knowledge, specifically in family systems theory.
2. Demonstrate a working knowledge of the systematic approach problem solving and conflict resolution.

Preparation Instructions

1. Compose your Systemic Epistemology Term Paper in Microsoft Word or a compatible word processing application.
2. The paper should be formatted and typed using Times New Roman, 12-point font, double-spaced, and one-inch margins (no exceptions).
3. The length of the paper should be eight to twelve pages in length (page number does not include the title page or references pages).
4. Use APA 6th edition formatting and use a minimum of 2 references.

Content Instructions

1. This term paper is to be written in formal APA style and should present in the author's own words a presentation and explanation of a systemic epistemology and how such a world-view differs from an individualistic view of human behavior.
2. The voice of the paper should be that of the author – brief quotes a cited paraphrasing are permitted to emphasize a point – but the paper should not be a patched together compilation (“cut and paste”) of the work of others.
3. This original term paper should be 8-12 pages in length. As a submission in an advanced graduate course, any typographical, spelling, or grammatical errors will result in a major reduction in grade.

Submission Instructions

- Save this assignment as “fname_lname_term_paper.doc.” (i.e., john_smith_term_paper.doc).
- Access the Assignments link located on the Course Menu to upload the final document as an attachment to the Term Paper drop box by the due date listed on the Course Schedule.