

Requirements: The project consists of three parts: a timeline, short summaries for each events, and a paragraph explaining a significant event in United States history. The project spans the length of the United States history from 1877-2014. Students will focus on events, people, places, or eras from this time in history.