Assignment 4: Workplace Ethics

Due Week 8 and worth 150 points

Overview

This assignment will give you the opportunity to choose a case study, and then write about the ethical implications and the impact of the events that are described. Each case study includes a set of questions that you should answer. You can choose either Case Study 1.1: Made in America or Case Study 6.3: Sniffing Glue.

Write a paper in which you:

1. Analyze the following questions associated with your chosen case study and discuss them using concepts you learned in this course.
 - a. What ideals, effects, and consequences are at stake?
 - b. Have any moral rights been violated?
 - c. What would a Utilitarian recommend?
 - d. What would a Kantian recommend?
2. Explain your rationale for each of your answers to your chosen case study with supporting evidence.
3. Your assignment must follow these formatting requirements:
 - This course requires use of Strayer Writing Standards \(SWS\). The format is different than other Strayer University courses. Please take a moment to review the SWS documentation for details.

The specific course learning outcomes associated with this assignment are:

- Determine the considerations for and process of ethical business decision making to balance corporate and social responsibilities and address moral, economic, and legal concerns.
- Analyze selected business situations using the predominant ethical theories, such as utilitarian, Kantian, and virtue ethics to guide ethical business decision making.
- Determine the implications and impact of various civil liberty laws in the workplace, such as hiring, promotion, discipline, discharge, and wage discrimination.
- Use technology and information resources to research issues in business ethics.
- Write clearly and concisely about business ethics using proper writing mechanics.
