

World History

Middle Ages Artifact Project

Written Research:

How might the Geography of the civilization affect this person? How does the location and the climate affect this person? What other geographic features might influence this person?

How does the religion of the civilization affect this person? What role does religion play in their life? Do they influence the religion of the civilization?

How do the achievements, innovations, and inventions of the civilization affect this person? Does this person contribute to the inventions and innovations of the civilization? What achievements, inventions, or innovations are most beneficial to this person?

How do the politics of the civilization affect this person? Does this person have political influence? How might this person respond to the political situation?

How does the economy of the civilization affect this person? What economic structures are in place that might affect this person? How might this person contribute to the economy? How might this person influence the economy?

How does the social structure of the civilization affect this person? Where does this person fall on the social hierarchy? How does this person's social position affect his or her life? What other social influences affect this person?

How does this person interact with other civilizations?

Source 1:

Source 2:

Source 3:

Other Sources: Magna Carta