

Writing an Annotation

General Questions for Writing an Annotation

Read the assigned article and then write your answers to the following questions. You will use the answers as a guideline to write an annotation. When you answer the questions, all of the information must come from the text, not from the abstract. Also, you must paraphrase the information in your answers; do not directly copy it from the article.

1. What type of source is this?

---

2. Who were the researchers?

---

---

3. What was the purpose of the study (what were the research questions)?

---

---

---

4. How did the researchers obtain their data?

---

---

5. What did the researchers find?

---

---

6. What did the researchers conclude from their findings?

---

---

7. What were the limitations of the study? Specifically, what factors may have influenced the researchers' findings?

---

---

---

8. What did the researchers suggest for future research?

---

---

---