

SPEECH TO INFORM QUESTIONS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Review the elements of the communication model. Draw the model and describe each element.
2. What is the purpose of the Speech to Inform?
3. Name the four basic delivery styles and an advantage and disadvantage of each.
4. What are some methods of finding a topic?
5. Name and describe five organization patterns used in informative speaking.
6. What three duties do you have in the introduction of an informative speech?
7. What two duties do you have in the conclusion of an informative speech?
8. Why is good delivery so important to successful speaking?
9. Discuss the effective use of visual aids.
10. Why is audience analysis important? What should you know in advance about the audience and environment?
11. What do you assume are the major differences between the Speech to Inform and the Speech to Persuade?

SPEECH TO PERSUADE: QUESTIONS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Define persuasion without using the word persuade.
2. Diagram the persuasion process.
3. Name the ways of establishing probability. List a test for each type.
4. What are the five steps of Monroe's Motivated Sequence? Describe the duties of each step.
5. What should you do before, during, and after interviewing a source of information?
6. List some of the resources available to you in the library.
7. Why should sources be cited in the text of your speech?