

PS 118 General Education Assessment Essay Prompt and Reading.

Assignment Question: What does the author of the attached passage argue about equality, how does that argument differ from that offered by one other political figure (scientist, philosopher, or politician) studied in this course, and what methodological critique would you make of the author's argument?

Directions:

- Read the attached passage.
- Prepare a typed, double-spaced, 400-700 word essay in response to the assignment question. Your response should feature a clear thesis and be well organized.
- Please use your computer's word count tool to provide an exact word count at the end of your essay.
- Put effort into your response – write carefully and proofread your work.

Do not use the internet or other sources to research the passage.

Do not use the Writing Center or friends for help with your writing.

Do not discuss the passage with your classmates.

Hand the assignment in to your instructor as directed.