

Practice 1

Change the sentences to questions. Number 1 is the example.

1. He broke his glasses in the garden.

Did he break his glasses in the garden?

2. We had a problem yesterday.

Did you have a problem yesterday?

3. I called Security to check the lock.

Did you call security to check the lock?

4. Do you work in Building 223?

Did you work in Building 223?

5. The orientation is two days long.

The orientation was two days long.

6. Are you Khaled's supervisor?

Were you supervisor?

7. Ali throws the ball very well.

Ali threw the ball very well.

8. The waiters clean the tables at the cafeteria.

The waiters cleaned the tables at the cafeteria.

9. Do you know how to form question sentences?

Did you know how to form question sentences?

10. The company offers many excellent benefits.

The company offered many excellent benefits.

11. I always tell the truth.

I always told the truth.

12. Does he make many mistakes?

Did he make many mistakes?

13. He eats too fast.

He ate too fast.

14. We always fly business class.

We flew business class.

15. This pencil lead breaks very easily.

4. Do you work in Building 223?

Did you work in Building 223?

5. The orientation is two days long.

The orientation was two days long.

6. Are you Khaled's supervisor?

Were you supervisor?

7. Ali throws the ball very well.

Ali threw the ball very well.

8. The waiters clean the tables at the cafeteria.

The waiters cleaned the tables at the cafeteria.

9. Do you know how to form question sentences?

Did you know how to form question sentences?

10. The company offers many excellent benefits.

The company offered many excellent benefits.

11. I always tell the truth.

I always told the truth.

12. Does he make many mistakes?

Did he make many mistakes?

13. He eats too fast.

He ate too fast.

14. We always fly business class.

We flew business class.

15. This pencil lead breaks very easily.