

Introduction:

My name is Abdullaziz, my family and friends usually call me Aziz. I am twenty years old; an international student from Kuwait who has a scholarship from his government. My major is mechanical engineering. Furthermore, my friends describe me as an outgoing person because I love to go fishing, hunting, and camping. In addition, I love animals, especially parrots. Moreover, I am a social person who loves to be around ~~with~~ many people and friends. Usually, I cook for them some traditional food. I love spicy food such as Indian and Mexican food. In my free time, I play cards and watch TV with my roommates at the same time, or tweet from my Iphone.
