Health Economics

Mid-Term Exam

Please answer all of the following essay questions.

1. In your opinion given an overview of the most pressing problem(s) related to the cost of delivering adequate/good healthcare, what source of payment should cover this cost?
2. How would you change any present day regulation(s) governing the cost of healthcare that could aid in reducing the cost of healthcare and still provide high quality service?
3. Is it possible to continue the level of quality healthcare to the poor and disadvantaged and save money at the same time giving the state of economic down trends and budget cuts that we are currently experiencing? Explain?
4. What of any present day healthcare problem(s) should we give up as a loss, given today's economic environment? Should your answer be none, explain why?
